Never ever really knew you
I never even had the chance
It might not matter to you
You might claim self defense
Deep down on the inside
It's always been the same
You and I are strangers
Like Strangers on a train

Chorus

Let me introduce myself
After all these years
I don't believe we've ever really met
Sitting side by side with our souvenirs
I've been waiting, but it hasn't happened yet
Cause we're strangers, the fact remains
Just like strangers, strangers on a train

Why can't I remember?
Back when I was young?
Back when I was innocent
Tell me what went wrong
I didn't mean to make you crazy
I didn't mean to make you run
But if it made you crazy
Man, you ain't the only one

Chorus

I'll go down to the graveyard
Dig up all the bones
My father's, father's, father
I see my name on every stone
I got to find an answer
Got to break the chain
I don't want to be no stranger
Like strangers on a train

Chorus
