When I found out that each and every one of you were dead

Wrote a letter to the universe instead
She said, I can put your mind at ease
I've got a planet on the, la-di

Tra, la, la, la, la, la, la
Love to be a man
Feeling victorious to discover foreign lands
You put the 'Ake' into make believe
Out of sight is out of mind

Your famous last words thought they'd never be erased
We were swimming on another for three days
With the waves crashing down on me
We're not runnin' out of time

Run for cover, hide beneath another land
Changin' in before we even took a chance
And when the sky's done cavin' in
Would you take me for a ride?

The knight had a number, number 37 back
Now we're dancin' to the music that we made [Incomprehensible]Look forever to remind that

I, I, I, I wanna be your man
But you won't let me recover who you will Set me free on a chance of breeze
Let me carry you beside

La, la, la, wa-wa-wa-wanna comprehend
The reflection in the mirror in your hand
Or the weight of the seven seas
Really caught us down the sides

Baby
Don't you know that it is understood
That if you take away the sunshine
Then you take way the starlight

Baby
Don't you know that it is understood
That if you take away the sunshine
Then you take way the starlight, ooh, ooh

Baby
Don't you know that it is understood
That if you take away the sunshine
Then you take way the starlight, ooh, ooh

Baby
Don't you know that it is understood
That if you take away the sunshine
Then you take way the starlight, ooh, ooh

Baby
Don't you know that it is understood
That if you take away the sunshine
Then you take way the starlight, ooh, ooh

Baby, understood, sunshine, starlight
Baby, understood, sunshine
