Jeb Rand
Running from bullets of his past
Jumping from rock to rock just out of grasp
Orphaned boy coming in ships across the sea
Memory is what you know not what you see
Please understand

Jed Rand you're a wanted man
Shot down by your brother's hand
Jeb Rand run out of this land
'Cause they won't stop 'til you can understand

Jeb Rand
Fighting time with all his might,
A desert wind blows ten thousand guns
Blazing in the night
So please understand

Jed Rand you're a wanted man
Shot down by your brother's hand
Jeb Rand run out of this land
'Cause they won't stop 'til you can understand

So please understand

Jed Rand you're a wanted man
Shot down by your brother's hand
Jeb Rand run out of this land
'Cause they won't stop 'til you can understand
