"Our Buried Secrets"

Visit "Our Buried Secrets" on MotoLyrics.com

And our tombs, and our buried body, together, silence leaves us dream Darkness will steal us and it will blind our eyes with its immensity
Victims of eternity, eradicated in the roots Extirpated with the evil, we are left with no mercy and no sense

We are all and we are nothing, but we are together Can I trust you?

I am losing my soul and I won't find it

I fight to save my spirit
I won't stop myself and I won't limp
My destiny is in my hands
I'm the only one who can change it

We will finish something we never started
And we're blocked in the mystery of our secret
We will finish something we never started
'Cause we're chained by our buried secrets

Someone has given us the chance to live together, but we wasted it
But now it's too late, we will remain in the silence
The walls are strong, the bottom is deep, will you overcome your fear?
I feel you moving, are you impatient?
You are condemned to stay there for eternity

"Frammenti di memorie percorrono la mia mente, la catturano, la dominano e la rendono fragile e docile, perch??"
