

Josh Addair

"My Kinda Country"

Visit "My Kinda Country" on MotoLyrics.com

She walked in with baby blues, her cowboy boots and her daisy dukes,

The dance floor parted when she looked my way and asked me what I wanted to do.

Well I walked on over and she stood on up as she pressed her skin on mine.

And man I almost lost it when she threw her hands up and said that this is my

This is my kinda country

The kind that makes you want to dance til dawn

This is my kinda country

and when you feel that feeling down in your bones,

you know that feeling cant be wrong,

this is my,

kinda country

We danced a while, and it got real hot - we threw back a couple bourbon shots - and then I saw that look in her eyes so we headed to the parking lot.

We made our way to my pick up truck - she heard Hank playin and she turned it up

Jumped on the hood, kicked of her boots

-then she looked at me and said

This is my kinda country

The kind that makes you want to dance til dawn

This is my kinda country

and when you feel that feeling down in your bones,

you know that feeling cant be wrong,

this is my,

kinda country

Instrumental Break

This is my kinda country

The kind that makes you want to dance til dawn

This is my kinda country

and when you feel that feeling down in your bones,

you know that feeling cant be wrong,

this is my,

This is my kinda country

The kind that makes you want to dance til dawn

This is my kinda country

and when you feel that feeling down in your bones,

you know that feeling cant be wrong,

this is my,

kinda country

Visit Josh Addair page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.