They put a new sign up today
Where everyone could read it
The folks who paid to have it made
Must think that I need it
It was selling Sunday service
Been a long time since I've been Sign said, "Are you man enough
To walk along with Him?"

Billboards for Jesus. Is that how it's gonna be?
Try and sell religion on a sinner just like me
Am I man enough? Am I strong enough?
I'm thinking, "Who the hell are they?
Don't need your billboards for Jesus
To show me the way."

Come next Sunday morning
I found myself in church
I walked in a cynic
But at least that sign had worked
My heart was worn and leathered
My attitude was tough
When the preacher man he asked me
"Son, how'd you hear about us?"
I told him
Billboards for Jesus that's how it came to be
Took a sign for me to find
My way down on my knees
Am I man enough, am I strong enough?
Lord, I hope and pray
Billboards for Jesus show me the way

We got hurricanes
And heartache pains
Brothers in Iraq
A world in need of rescue
And friends who won't come back
But our doors are like His arms
Wide open every day
If your hurting
Come inside my friend

I'll gladly show the way (I'll be your)

Billboard for Jesus, that's how it's gonna be
Gotta tell somebody else
Just what He's done for me
Am I strong enough, Am I man enough?
Lord, I hope and pray
Billboards for Jesus, show me the way.
