

Kendrick Lamar

"Last Band Of Brothers"

Visit "Last Band Of Brothers" on MotoLyrics.com

Well I was visiting the graveyards
In this rows of white
Where they berried all the soldiers
Who ever took up arms to fight.
When I cam across this old man
He was talking to the grave.
I kept my distance, watched in aw
As he spoke to them by name.

Kacey your still the captain
Of our high school football team.
And Iggy we knew you lied about you age
You were seventeen.
And Harlem you were the first to fall
When we came under attack.
You peoples are the heroes,
The ones who never made it back.

And he said...
Buddy if you hear me,
Well you know you save my life.
And you know I wont forget the others,
The ones on our left and on our right.
It wont be long until I'm gone
You know I'll join you then.
Then our last band of brothers will rise again.

So I called that man a hero
And I asked if we could meet.
But instead he introduced the men of Easy Company.
He said we never dreamed what we would see
When raise our right hand.
But our lives were bound forever
When we stepped out on that sand.

He said...
Buddy if you hear me
Well you know you save my life.
And I wont forget the others
On our left and on our right.
It won't be long until I'm gone

You know I'll join you then.
Them our last band of brothers will rise again.

Well it's been a while since I've been by
So I stopped just the other day.
And I notice there was one more stone
In the ground where Easy laid.

And I said...
Buddy if you hear me
Well I know you gave your life.
And I wont forget the others
On your left and on your right.
A generation gone while you've moved on
I know you band with them.
Last band of brothers will rise again
Last band of brothers will rise again

Visit Kendrick Lamar page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

MotoLyrics.com | Lyrics, music videos, artist biographies, releases and more.