When I jumped off the Porsche I was forced to last resource of a typical short cross when that tickles loss I was forced yelling demons that caught inside of me taught society how to rejoice killers on side of me haviest prophecy was lost for a parassy of the streets and my heart is get caught up the bullet that probably destroyed a good kid in a mad city is slightly annoyed I walk out the street with no hitting running to beef when I'm just a fit and readin the scent of a saint and I smell it the star squeezin palace tumble and straight have my melon apparent reason probably was because am I cousin cousin the blood that was blood then public and Kendrick seem what I'm last weak and cousin but you ain't no Kennemy instead of Kendrick I'm Kennedy
..so take my character that's your remedy fair enough I got enemies but I don't bang but that's the real precaution like when your cousin is cousin a blood and you're by yourself parade good kid I told 20 seconds
