[Kendrick Lamar]

I swear you people don't know Kendrick
You don't know him
But you say you want some more Kendrick
I'm bout to show 'em
Everything that's out this human being
I'm still growing
I'm a premature baby in this crazy life that we adore
Doors on the Lamborghini
I want 'em
Can't afford 'em so I tell the swap meet to clone 'em
I guess I really am a vanity slave
I guess my ancestors turning in their graves
Burning money when I get it
Fuck a life savings
Overdraft bank statements
Just to make a statement
When I put this fashion on
I'm a fashion junkie
Picking cotton in the country
I bought this out the country
Whips and chains, whips and chains
Jacob know my name
He call me Kunta
You my brother, we come from the same modern world
That's your girl, I see she rockin Fendi
Try this on
If it ain't upscale you may offend me
Coppin everything in sight
Ignorin they sacrifice
Amnesia if I see the black visa in my hand tonight
I show my dick and then I swipe
That's a punchline
That was hot and I want ice
That's ironic huh

Word around town I'm all about the bitches
Word around town that I love me 26's
Word around town that I gotta stay paid
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave
[Gucci Mane]
It's the Gucci, cock and shoot

Found my swag but lost my roof, burr
[Kendrick Lamar]
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave
[Gucci Mane]
See my Audemar tick, that's my Audemar tock
[Kendrick Lamar]
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave
Oh man videos got me wanting hoes
Appetite for flashing lights all I can do is pose
A black male on Melrose
I should get blackmailed by my people, hell rose
Niggas that ain't have shit
For 400 years overcompensate by over accessorizing with gear
Man, y'all don't see my vision
I do it for the love of hip hop and the love of bitches
Am I a hypocrite because everyday I'm contradicting
I think of how I'm living, then I watch how I'm living
I know this can't be right

My conscience tell me to stay righteous
It's unlikely to see what I what I like and say I don't like it
Biggest dilemma
My priorities ignoring me
I want to move accordingly but baby steps are premature, remember
I'm flying to the South and I'll be gone 'til November
To see my family tree but this a shame, I'm yelling out timber

Word around town I'm all about the bitches
Word around town that I love me 26's
Word around town that I gotta stay paid
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave
[Gucci Mane]
It's the Gucci, cock and shoot
Found my swag but lost my roof, burr
[Kendrick Lamar]
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave
[Gucci Mane]
See my Audemar tick, that's my Audemar tock
[Kendrick Lamar]
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave

Cold, oh so cold
How ironic, he bought it then sold his soul
Is it masonic for your vice to take its toll
The remo (?) control is taking control
Lift up the doors
That lamborghini

I want to come with a dumbass model that invokes (?)
I like em both
I wife em both
Take these motherfucking jordans off, put on my loafers
Cause nothing goes bad every time I wear gucci
I'm getting more ass every time I wear gucci
They tell me it's a fad
Every time I wear gucci
But shit, I give a fuck when it bring me more coochie
This a young nigga's pedigree, I pray the lord can better me
If not, he bout to strike me down like this my third felony
The voices keep telling me,
Kendrick, don't forget about us
I burned my wardrobe hoping that I could live without it

Word around town I'm all about the bitches
Word around town that I love me 26's
Word around town that I gotta stay paid
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave
[Gucci Mane]
It's the Gucci, cock and shoot
Found my swag but lost my roof, burr
[Kendrick Lamar]
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave
[Gucci Mane]
See my Audemar tick, that's my Audemar tock
[Kendrick Lamar]
Lord please forgive me I'm a vanity slave
