Yessir

You know what's funny

its like when I be fuckin with somebody

Everybody felt like I owed them answers to everything

But it's cool

This is how MGK handles the situation

(a million)

Haha

They be saying Kells why you leaving now?

You bouced and never came back around

Look I'm still in the city I just don't leave the house

What's this talk about you acting all crazy?

They say you getting Hollywood

Fuck them, pay me

I'm sane

You won't even collab with another artist?

Wrong, It's just half of these rappers out here retarded

Theres only 2 reasons why I wouldn't do a song

Either it isn't beneficial or their money isn't long

Damn it's like that?

Unfortunately it is

Cause no cheddar equals out to no food for my kid

Hold up, you got a kid too? How old is you?

I'm 19 but I deal with grown man issues

Okay cool, at least we know you not no fool

But you look like a college boy why you not in school?

Cuz I was in the principals offices more than the class

Wouldn't write a letter of reccomendation for my ass

See most of the teachers hate me right along with the kids

Cuz my reputation outside of the campus was getting big (a million)

Bitch

Ha, yeah it's like that

Okay okay

But I ain't done bro

Okay you're confusing me

I always see you in the hood

But you look like them white boys from Laguna beach

So what are you? A Thug or an Asher Roth?
I'm none of that, I'm the whole entire catalog
From front to back the perfect blend like camouflage
Because I'm still me, even when the camera's off Well I been hearing about some things you false bragging where you from
So what city is it? Help me understand this son
Look I was born in H-town, raised in the middle east Seen every part of the world from the ghetto to the beach
But unfortunately that was all before I turned 9
So the experience wasn't appreciated by my young mind
Yeah get to the point
Chill bro let me talk
Well explain the 2 area codes thats tatted on your arms Okay my left one is for Denver and my right is for the Land
Better known as Cleveland Midwest is what I am
Next time you wanna question, understand this fam
I represent cuz those the cities that taught me to be a man
Okay, I guess I didn't see everything on the plate
Well next time you wanna question get your facts straight
Biatch

Damn
I guess that was cool and all
I dig that
But you gonna have to change that homeboy
Oh yeah
I got some more
Alright, come on bro
Let's go

So what you got besides a name that makes you think you so cool?
I won first at the Apolo what more do I gotta prove?
The first rapper to do it
Plus on top of that I'm staring at my '09 best live performance award plaque
Yeah, well how many fans you got?
Thousands
Prove it
I'm on every major blog with no album
Sure, but anyone with a deal gets that respect
Wrong. Cuz I did this without a major label check
You saying you not signed?
No, I had no help
I earned everything that I got then I signed myself

Damn, you must be ballin, where the chains and the whip?
I'm far from rich and the only jewels I cop's for my chick
What about your boys? How'd you get them all to be down?
How much you pay?
None dude, we from the same side of town
And if we all split up the chips and for the moment live good
But if not, we still fam like we back in the hood Friends? I respect that. What about the haters?
Word is you got a couple cats jacking your flavor
Hell yeah, a couple people out to down my name
Turn on the radio the song's and the style's the same
Befriended me to stab me in the back, they lame
Should be ashamed, but all is well
It's just the rules of the game
Man
haha yeah wow its crazy
That definitely was crazy man
Appreciate you answering the questions though
You gotts tell 'em your name bro go ahead
okay I got you bro
Let it be known
That you have been speaking with
MGK
