i was demanding to be the oh so strong truth be told i only want myself to tag along following my shadow, loaded with guilt see what i didn't know was that, patching up only makes a quilt

have to much pleasure from illusions of right it seems id rather loose a friend then a fight but i'm not young enough to know everything see what i do know is my alter ego is up-coming

i'm slippin
cause i cant get me off of this throne
i'm slippin
its too much of a comfort zone
i'm slippin
cause i cant get me off this throne
i'm slippin
cause i cant get me off of this throne its too much of a comfort zone use persuasion as my strongest approach i preach my wisdom as a neat friendly poach respect you don't get, its something you owe if your can't do what i do its cause you reap what you sow taking my time sharing my week yeah i am good at listening when i hear myself speak

once i swell attention tasted enough want do every weekend i am wasted

i'm slippin...

enough want to every weekend i'm wasted
