"Waste Love"

Visit "Waste Love" on MotoLyrics.com

hanging out on my bed spending time i never had closer to my memory try to make me undo sad when you say i am lonely did you count in what you said the love i saved for rainy days guess i gave it all away really wanna believe worn out love can succeed

if you stayed on my sheet
it would be so to easy

While you waste love my heart is in growing pains

hanging out on my bed
all the fruits has now gone bad further south from my head i still want you to come back when i stated to let down you have been coming back around makes no difference anyway lazy feelings will obey
