Really then? Are we lost, where we stand no x for our spot, believe in your feet, move an inch, move the earth, move an inch, move the sky

And look to your arms, a strength, your breath, a life,
your will to live, and still you're by the way, you know.

No demon, no daughter, no mother, no father, got
theirs by the way
No demon, no daughter, no mother, no father forgets

Really then? Are we grown? Has the future begun to reflect? Be the wrong side of hate, be the wrong side of fate, be the "re" in regret.
And look to your arms, a strength, your breath, a life,
your will to live, and still you're by the way, you know.

No demon, no daughter, no mother, no father, got
theirs by the way
No demon, no daughter, no mother, no father forgets

Riddle, where we're on, all you were that you were was it all just a lie?
Riddle, turn this off, all you were that you were, was it all just a lie?

All this same, that you were, it won't bother me
anymore
anymore

Anymore, yeah right.
