Your Favorite Martian

Hah-hah

Alright, here we go, check it out

My grandmama used to tell me one day I would be king
And that it could be me to put these dreams into a sling
And fling 'em like a bullet till they beam the whole ruling regime

And the melon that I tell 'em that I'm gonna ring supreme

But it seems, I'm a damn salmon swimmin' upstream
I scream 'cause I know just why the cage bird sings I'll adorn the king's throne where his treasure was pleasure

'Cause this job is temporary Success is forever!

Workin' every week at a job I can't stand
I always tell myself that one day I'll be the man

What we gonna to tonight, Frank?

We're gonna take over the world

Gonna take over the world

Gonna take over the world

Na nanana nanana

Nanananana nanana nana

What we gonna to tonight, Frank?

We're gonna take over the world

Gonna take over the world

Gonna take over the world

Yeah

We're gonna take over the world Deejay

Hah, me and you

I love that sample

Alright, here we go

I'mma shoot straight for the stars in my rocket

No time on the clock, I'm gonna stop it

Kryptonite in my pocket for all the cynical supermen

Surrounding me, crowding me, shrouding me with doubt

They don't know how to be proud of me

'Cause one day I'm gonna run this town
When I seize the crown, it's gonna please the crowd
My hands and feet were bound to the ground at least till now
Because this shop is like a prison but the beast is out

Raagh!

I'm not just chasing these dreams
I'm hidin' out in the bushes and then I wait till they leave
And jump out and pistol whip them with my loaded ambition
I'm not gonna front, I'm Ethan Hunt on this impossible mission
Listen
This ain't a game of Risk in the kitchen I'm Stewie Griffin in this bitch and I just flipped the ignition
I'll click the robotic ninjas
Programmed to kick my competition in the face
I swear to God, one day I'll run this place

Workin' every week at a job I can't stand
I always tell myself that one day I'll be the man
What we gonna to tonight, Frank?
We're gonna take over the world
Gonna take over the world
Gonna take over the world
Na nanana nanana
Nanananana nanana nana
What we gonna to tonight, Frank?
We're gonna take over the world
Gonna take over the world
Gonna take over the world

Once I quit this job then I'll be free
I got greater plans, wait and see
I'm gonna rise to the top, take over everything
Some day my boss will work for me, one day I'll be king

Workin' every week at a job I can't stand
I always tell myself that one day I'll be the man
What we gonna to tonight, Frank?
We're gonna take over the world
Gonna take over the world
Gonna take over the world
Na nanana nanana
Nanananana nanana nana
What we gonna to tonight, Frank?
We're gonna take over the world

Gonna take over the world
Gonna take over the world
