For weeks now, you run and you talked in your sleep
You shook me awake to announce, you're never alone

Spring was confusing, a little bit scary
Summer was much of the same
By Winter you run with the nights, never came home

For weeks now, run and you talked in your sleep
You shook me awake to announce, you're never alone

Spring was confusing, a little bit scary
Summer was much of the same
By Winter you run with the nights, never came home

Scream bloody murder, the mountains are listening
(?) has left you for dead, bloody
How can you sleep when you can't pull the teeth from your eyes

Scream bloody murder, the mountains are listening
(?) has left you for dead, bloody
How can you sleep when you can't pull the teeth from
your eyes

Scream bloody murder, the mountains are listening
(?) has left you for dead, bloody
How can you sleep when you can't pull the teeth from
your eyes

For weeks now, you run and you talked in your sleep
You shook me awake to announce, you're never alone

Spring was confusing, a little bit scary
Summer was much of the same
By Winter you run with the nights, never came home
