Yes and I, I need you to bleed for me
And you, I need you to kneel for me
Just one loosing battle left to fight
Your colors will stay frozen red on white
And I, I'll show how to bleed for me

Don't let your anger turn to me
Don't let your hunger feed on me
Don't let your anger turn to me
Don't let your hunger feed on me

The primal state of pain that I'll put you in Through sacrifice and fear I will curse your skin

But still, I crave more than you could give A ritual is born in this human waste
My lips are covered with your escaping taste
And now, yes now you can shine through me

Don't let your anger turn to me (All of your hatred makes me bleed)
Don't let your hunger feed on me (All your emotions makes me sick)
Don't let your anger turn to me (All of your wrongs won't be redeemed)
Don't let your hunger feed on me (Don't let your hunger feed on me)
