Failure, give up don't try at all anymore, anymore
Your weakness, but if you like to fight
This is the last time, this is the last time

Dried up and away with discerning mental love affairs
I'd rather stick with any number of these played out fairy tales
And moments of your (Yellow shining)

Spending your time in a hiding
Making out the reasons why the (Life you're seein')
The public eye with everything you try
Well, it's never good enough

Oh, these friends die easy
Oh, just disappear
Oh well, my best friend
I knew these lives would end up here

Oh, these friends die easy
Oh, just disappear
Oh well, my best friend
I knew these lives would end up here

Your weakness, but if you like to fight
This is the last time, this is your last time

If I could tell you any and everything
Don't ask, just tell like I should Like I know you never could
And moments come out of hiding

(Spitting weakness to colors)
Shining the dark you see
The reason why you fail at everything you try
With everything you are
Well, it's never good enough

Oh, these friends die easy
Oh, just disappear

Oh well, my best friend
I knew these lives would end up here

Oh, these friends die easy
Oh, just disappear
Oh well, my best friend
I knew these lives would end up here
I knew these lives would end up here

So then
And I won't even say goodbye
And I won't even say goodbye

So then
And I won't even say goodbye
And I won't even say goodbye

Oh, these friends die easy
Oh, just disappear
Oh well, my best friend
I knew these lives would end up here

Oh, these friends die easy
Oh, just disappear
Oh well, my best friend
I knew these lives would end up here
I knew these lives would end up here
