These nightmares I'm falling in my sleep
And I can't fight myself
From falling so elusively out of this dream
And I can't help but scream
I am so lost in searching, looking for you
But I'll be damned if I can find you

This is so much harder than it seems
These past few nights I can't get you out of my dreams

(Shake me!) To the rhythm of our broken hearts (Shake me!) You and me we are the only ones, only ones
Can't count on anyone, we're all alone
(Shaken!) With the rhythm of our lonely hearts, lonely hearts

These nightmares, well they all have a theme
We get broken down in moments
So helpless when I'm so far from you
And my muscles scream
I can't stand when I can't hold you nightly
Gripping my love for you tightly

This is so much harder than it seems
These past few nights I can't get you out of my dreams

(Shake me!) To the rhythm of our broken hearts
(Shake me!) You and me we are the only ones, only
ones
Can't count on anyone, we're all alone
(Shaken!) With the rhythm of our lonely hearts, lonely
hearts

I just want you to know I never asked you to understand
Please just think of what it means to me
I just want you to know I never asked you to understand
Please just think of what it means to me

These nightmares I'm falling in my sleep
And I can't fight myself
From falling so elusively out of this dream

(Shake me!) To the rhythm of our broken hearts
(Shake me!) You and me we are the only ones, only
ones
Can't count on anyone, we're all alone
(Shaken!) With the rhythm of our lonely hearts, lonely
hearts
