As you lie on your own
Remember this, you're not alone
There's a song that will bring me to side
And when you want for me
Pictures leaves in the breeze
And the tears that that I'll no longer cry

And you know I've loved you so
And will 'til the end of days
But as I go, I want you to know
You are loved

Shadows fall
From the fire
Loneliness
Was desire
All these lives are just strangers passing by
And one day we'll meet again,
I'll be wind
You'll be rain

Chasing round like lovers of old time

And you know I've loved you so
And I will 'til the end of days
But as I go, I want you to know
You are loved
