The world keeps spinning but I think i'm going in the wrong direction the world keeps loving
but I think i'm loosing all of my affection

Today is tomorrow
it's all the same
i'm living in the real life
but it feels like a game

You've got me feeling so alone the problem is you don't even know it lasted only for a day I tried so hard but now you've got me leaving this town again

The world keeps going
but I think i'm going to be giving up today is a game I can't win I think i'm going through with it

Today is tomorrow
it's all the same

it lasted only for a day

It seems like everything is Cloudy with a chance of rain make sure to bring your umbrella today the forecast has a chance to change maybe sunny on another day

it's all the same

You've got me feeling so alive now where here at eleven drive it will last for a million days I made a promise and now were staying and not leaving again
