Verse

She never saw the light
She never saw her son
She never enjoyed her life
She never played a game
She hasn't got a mother
She hasn't got a friend
She hasn't got a dream
She hasn't got a life
They've thought she was a witch
They've thought she was a ghost
They've thought she was a monster
They've thought she was a slut

Chorus

I never changed my idea
I've thought she was a saint
Even if nothing was good
I kept to believe in you
In every place and town
Her name was well-known
And one day I found her
Down in a hole
