One lifting sigh leaves me light, leaves me light.
In the darkness of midnight I am blinded, I am blind

It's this crooked and old blue house
It's the bend of the willows bough
Bowing to the ground

And I could hear it breathing
Creeping from the darkness in my room
It's sneaking up on me
Drifting in my ears like a slow tune
My imagination, oh
It can be a dangerous refuge
There's no way to escape it
This fear is always stalking after you
There's nowhere to run

Fleet of my time but my arms open, arms are wide
Peek in my mind just to find a mess of a life

It's the spin of the ceiling tiles
It's this rusted and concrete mind
That's bending the bind

And I could hear it breathing
Creeping from the darkness in my room
It's sneaking up on me
Drifting in my ears like a slow tune
My imagination, oh
It can be a dangerous refuge
There's no way to escape it
This fear is always stalking after you
There's nowhere to run

And I could hear it breathing
Creeping from the darkness in my room
It's sneaking up on me
Drifting in my ears like a slow tune
My imagination, oh
It can be a dangerous refuge
There's no way to escape it
This fear is always stalking after you

There's nowhere to run
Nowhere to run
Run, run, run.
