Your face has taken over all my thoughts again.
It's been a year of silence
you've be distant.
And mentally far from me.

Oh, blue Christmas, oh. I hope you remember that
I won't wish you one merry December.
For I have lost it all, all of the spirit that Christmas.
That damn Christmas used to bring.

I won't disguise the bitter with ribbon
red bow ties.
The memory of our happiness in those twinkling lights.
Decieving me, glistening.

Oh, blue Christmas, oh. I hope you remember that
I won't wish you one merry December.
For I have lost it all, all of the spirit that Christmas.
That damn Christmas used to bring.

I won't recall us happily when we'd kiss
by that plastic tree coz that's over, that's over now.

Oh, blue Christmas, oh. I hope you remember that
I won't wish you one merry December.
For I have lost it all, all of the spirit that Christmas.
That damn Christmas used to bring.
