I don't wanna breathe anymore
I don't wanna see anymore
Because it's hurting me inside so bad
That I just can't take it

I don't wanna lie anymore
I don't wanna cheat anymore
Because it's hurting some people so bad
That I just can't take it

Pre-Chorus:
Cause there's times
That I'm anxious
Then there's times that I'm helpless
But as I try to forget it
It controls every part of my body that I can't deny

Chorus:
If I could sleep without a blanket
On the coldest winter night without you
If I could starve without being hungry
From caring so much at night about you

If I could breathe
With no one to breathe for
If I could love
With no one to care for
Then my heart wouldn't be tearing to pieces
And begging for you to come back, come back, come back again

Baby baby come back
Baby baby come back
Come back again

I know you're perfect girl
You will never make mistakes
So for me to mess things up
And throw all your love away

Makes me stupid makes me angry makes me lonely
Makes me wonder how I ever had you with me

I know you loved me once
And I've only messed up twice
Oh I know we had that trust
Just forgiveness will suffice

I'll say I'm sorry and always tell you that I love you
Say you're beautiful I swear I'll always be true

Pre-Chorus:
Cause there's times
That I'm anxious
Then there's times that I'm helpless
But as I try to forget it
It controls every part of my body that I can't deny

Chorus:
If I could sleep without a blanket
On the coldest winter night without you
If I could starve without being hungry
From caring so much at night about you

If I could breathe
If I could love
With no one to care for
back again

Baby baby come back
