I've bin waiting, waiting forever
I've bin playing with your head
You won't believe me, you said it was over
I just ignore, everything you said

And I love the way you want me
And I love you way you play me
And I love the way you want me, want me to be near you
Near you

And it's time and it's time to make another mistake
I don't know I don't know if I could stay awake
But you know you know the way we could be
So just wait so just wait a life time for me

Lord forgive me, I know not what I do
So you could save me, I've bin left alone
I am falling I won't get out of here
You'll leave forever, I know you will

And I love the way hate me
And I hate the way you play me

And I love the way you want me, want me near to you

Near to you

And it's time and it's time to make another mistake
I don't know I don't know if I could stay awake
But you know you know the way we could be
So just wait so just wait a life time for me

So hold on, so hold on, hold on to what I am
Hold on, hold on because I can't, because I can't

And it's time and it's time to make another mistake
I don't know I don't know if I could stay awake
But you know you know the way we could be
So just wait so just wait a life time for me
And it's time and it's time to make another mistake
I don't know I don't know if I could stay awake

But you know you know the way we could be
So just wait so just wait a life time for me

Lord forgive me I know not what I do
