You thought you opened up the door for me
But I was already in
You try to keep me in control
But you could never win

Our funeral will be in sickness and insanity
Nothing is undone I pull the fuckin gun
You'll never be alone again in this life
You'll never ever be free

A taste of me FUCKED up your sanity
Lets stay together for eternity
Our funeral will be in sickness and insanity
Nothing is undone I pull the fuckin gun
Break our last bone and peel our dead skin
Close down our minds there's nothing left within
