"Golddigger"

Well hidden lines for miles and miles
Been there for years quite obvious
Every now and then right out of the blue
An undetected sneaks in

So innocent

Exposing that figure
Teasing that trigger
Although you're just another golddigger
Teasing that trigger

With a billion dollar smile
You take what you came for
Leaving no trace
As you make your way out

Exposing that figure
Teasing that trigger
Although you're just another golddigger
Teasing that trigger

So innocent

Unalarmed by your presence
Left with empty pockets
But you were way to charming
To do such a thing

Exposing that figure
Teasing that trigger
Although you're just another golddigger
