I've been down every bottle
And I've been doing it for years
So it seems I can't break this stone
So pour me another shot and leave me alone

Everyday moves me closer to the soil
I'm like hot water meant to boil
You might think I'm a useless man
I know I know this is the way that I am

It's just the way that I am
It's just the way that I am

Passed out with my mouth wide open
Hammered down once again
Spitting slugs on a Sunday morning
Hammered down once again

It's just the way that I am
It's just the way that I am
