"Henchmen"

For thousands of years we've reigned the world
By bringing you plagues and war
No matter how you try to improve the world
We'll always be around to reap our share
We are the henchmen we are the DEVILS front
We are the ones who takes you to where you belong
All evil you've done has to come around
It's time for you to face the evil one
It's time for you to join our crew
We are the henchmen we are the DEVILS front
Touched by the Devilish one
Carrying out the last strike
Bringing your soul to the other side
Leaving your body to rot
We are the henchmen we are the Devils front
