Nightmares

These dark secrets was never to be told

Nightmares

These dark secrets was never to be told

I'm gonna teach you while you're learning

I'm gonna preach for you this way

I'm gonna treat you like vermin

This is the way you have to pay

I'm gonna leave you bleeding

I'm gonna let you rot away

I've grown to hate you God only knows

I push my fingers into your eyes

And how do I feel now when you're gone

A lasting dose of adrenaline flows

Nightmares

These dark secrets was never to be told

Nightmares

These dark secrets was never to be told

Now I stand here like a stone

Wondering whatever went wrong

Fulfilled my promise of Vengeance

Your empty eyes staring back at me

And how do I feel now when you're gone

A lasting dose of adrenaline flows
