My nightmares have a sudden tone it's dangerous to be left alone

I wander blindly through my fears it's strange and dark and you're not there

Cause you're gone, you're gone

Heartbreak washes over me like moonlight soft I cannot see

I'm angry I recall your face now there's nothing in its place

Cause you're gone, you're gone

(All that's left is) Teardrops on my pillow

Teardrops on my pillow

(All that's left is) Teardrops on my pillow

Teardrops on my pillow

I send your body up in flames the ash collected for your grave

We'll smudge my heart we'll smudge my mind
And settle somewhere deep inside

I'll cast your memory out to sea the tide will bring it back to me

Cause you're gone, you're gone, you're gone, you're gone

(All that's left is) Teardrops on my pillow

Teardrops on my pillow

(All that's left is) Teardrops on my pillow

Teardrops on my pillow
