Is this too good to be true
Will I always be afraid of losing you
I've seen love slip through fingers like sand
So before I put my heart in your hands

Put your hand on your heart
Make a promise to love from the start (love from the start)
It will be you and me, never to part
Just put your hand on your heart

Ahh

If you're as good as your word (as good as your word)
Darling there are still a few I haven't heard (haven't heard)
I just wanna know what you've got planned
So before I put my heart in your hand

Put your hand on your heart
Make a promise to love from the start (love from the start)
It will be you and me, never to part
Just put your hand on your heart

Do you vow, do you swear
Do you promise you'll always be there (always be there)
Baby please, understand
Before I put my heart in your hand

Put your hand on your heart
Make a promise to love from the start
It will be you and me, never to part, oh, yeah
Just put your hand on your heart

Put your hand on your heart
Make a promise to love from the start (love from the start, oh yeah)
It will be you and me, never to part (never to part)
Just put your hand on your heart

Put your hand on your heart (put your hand on your heart)
Make a promise to love, baby
Put your hand on your heart (ooh, baby)
Make a promise to love (your heart)

Put your hand on your heart
Make a promise to love (make a promise to love me baby)
Put your hand on your heart (put your hand on your heart)
Make a promise to love
