I don't want you to talk to me unless you're meaning
what you say.
Don't tell me what I want to hear just to make things
good today.
Don't talk. Don't say a word. Don't tell me what I've already heard.
Don't talk. Don't let me in. Just lie in my bed at 7:00 A.M.
I don't want to hear your philosophy. I don't want to hear your = Prophecy.
I know that you're using me. Is that the way it's meant to be?
Don't talk. Don't say a word. Don't tell me what I've already heard.
Don't talk. Don't let me in. Just lie in my bed at 7:00 A.M.
The alarm is quiet. I can hear you breathing.
I want to see to know what you're dreaming...
