

Nidji

"Old School New Again"

Visit "Old School New Again" on MotoLyrics.com

I ain't rich and I ain't famous but there's folks out there that come to see the band. At times it seems that Nashville
Won't claim us. So we just keep on trucking in a beat up van. They call me a throw back another old hat act. Well I can't Help that's who I am.

I guess I'm just old school I love making music you can dance to. I may not sound like the latest trend. Never been on a tv
Show. I got some buddies out in radio that spin my records every now and then. So call me a dreaming fool, but wouldn't it be
So cool if we made old school new again.

I know times they change. So I ain't saying we need to go back to nudie suits, rhinestones and fringe. I just wanna be proud
Of what I'm playing and sing a little lefty now and then.
Just hope there's a juke box that still has an empty slot.
Lord Knows I ought to fit in.

I guess I'm just old school I love making music you can dance to. I may not sound like the latest trend. Never been on a tv
Show. I got some buddies out in radio that spin my records every now and then. So call me a dreaming
fool, but wouldn't it be
So cool if we made old school new again.

I know a cowboy who lost a friend we all wrote a song for him and we made old school new again.

Visit Nidji page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.