Let's go!

Waiting for the shadows, to get away from me
Want to go back in time and make things right
No matter what the world is like, the awful guilt remains
Just want to make a difference, and make it right

Want my life, free of lies (Oh-oh)
No more lies, in my life

Searching for a way to make myself believe
It's just a scary feeling I'd like to leave
Darkness is all around me, nothing but fear in sight
This feeling deep inside me, a internal flame

Want my life, free of lies (Oh-oh)
No more lies, in my life (Oh-oh)
Make things right, overnight (oh-oh)
No more lies, in my life

Want my life, free of lies (Oh-oh)
No more lies, in my life (Oh-oh)
Make things right, overnight (Oh-oh)
No more lies, in my life
