[CHORUS]

Im riding down 285 and i know
girl is at the house waiting at the front door
now i know she got a man but her man cant know keep it on the low, keep it on the low

Im riding down 285 with my rims still spinning, ha just kidding ha just kidding low key u know me, i keep my business shut but on the real, shes 5ft with the biggest butt gota mission and my mission is the sexiest dane i call her booby but to you see u don't need her name shes always dressed to impress but man cant see that when shes scanning cross the room, yo shes scanning for me eyes lock, she approaches like its casual talk cant show emotion cuz we might get caught bends over just to whisper, "let the fun begin" i whisper back, yeah baby ima see u at ten

girl is at the house waiting at the front door
keep it on the low, keep it on the low
Im riding down 285 and i know
girl is at the house waiting at the front door
keep it on the low, keep it on the low

Im riding down 285 with my windows peeled 22's, wood grained with the phantom grill sidekick flipped up, new messages in her man just left, and i can swing thru round 10 im in, 2 stops before i make my creep nickel bag, hennessy and apple juice for me box of rubs and some grub for the after snack bottle of lotions so i can still massage her back treat her great do the things that her man wont do he can buy her shoes and some purses too all she wants is attention an to feel shes loved so every week i roll through and i show her whats up

girl is at the house waiting at the front door
keep it on the low, keep it on the low
Im riding down 285 and i know
girl is at the house waiting at the front door
keep it on the low, keep it on the low

ok im pulling up, when i get outta the seat i see her staring in my eyes like shes ready eat or ready to cheat and hit the sheets, but it dont matter to me im only there for that one thing and thats the passionate creep now oh me, and oh my, give me a piece of that pie only worryin bout when, not concerned with why we hit the door, she embraces me and touches my face starts darting towards the room, now im joinin the chase lay her down real soft and as im kissing her ear i hear a noise in the room, but it wasnt that clear knob turns, it swings open and to my surprise her man's standing over me with a gleam in his eye

girl is at the house waiting at the front door
keep it on the low, keep it on the low
Im riding down 285 and i know
girl is at the house waiting at the front door
