All in all it's just another day, it seems so hard to fight the pain You're broken and confused, your heart is torn by the things you do Everything's a blur, where can you turn to find your way
There is a voice that's calling out, a voice to help you find your way

There's a God that loves you more than you'll ever know There's a God that wants you, he died so you would know
There's a Savior calling for you to come and go 'Cause no matter where you've been, you don't have to be alone

In and out of where you've been, the same old story once again
In need of a Savior, in need of a friend
The peace that comes from letting go, the greatest peace you'll ever know If only you surrender, surrender all, just let it go

CHORUS

It doesn't matter where you go, it doesn't matter who you know
It doesn't matter 'cause you know that to go back you can't go
There is freedom when you realize
