you make me feel like i need a lil something in my life every day we holding it down and we kicking it tonight allright and dont you know

every moment that i spend with you there is no better got me feening for your body next to mine let this player lay you down one time you that lil some thing in my life (x 1) shes what i was missing what i was pitching a first glance now we kick it every day its truly something specal love making erotic let your mind drift just good time you the one im with and who i call when im lonely a match no one got us together is just worked got you thinking im your soule mate but i just fit the caricter you know me no longer lonely still nights at home but got you by my side keep it true and hold it down got me in check she my mate no need for another unless she feeling freaky then she call her best friend that she been knowing a woman of many mans dreams right befor my eyes and here for me at frist glance i was coushas i know how her type can be so i took it slow and the love did grow in both of us accepted by both circls of frinds no back stabbers no romers spred a feel good vybe a woman just so perfict

you make me feel like i need a lil something in my life

got me feening for your body next to mine let this

she got me feening for her no longer numb this thug loveing go deep open the door to my heart feelings im my life once agen my prayer ansured she heaven sent i dont want her to leave was once cold heardt but now a man thinking about approching her on bended knee i got the ring just need the nerve to ask is this to fast what do i have to lose nothing everything else i loved is gone i just dont want her to slip threw my hands the worls is diffrent but she old fashond in her wase not the player type you find in these times just a woman with good morals and she fine she shine got that glow to her skin others attemp but i got her on lock not from pressur its how i treat her howed i meet her it just by chance she like my romance and just how i bring it to the table bed and the sink, yea girl what you think you make me feel like i need a lil something in my life

got me feening for your body next to mine let this
