I can see you're talking
But all I can hear is smelling
Turn the volume up one time
The confidence is lacking
Hiding in the shadows
All you do is hold the walls up
Baby what's the hold up
What's with all these walls up

You can feel the rhythm
But your body's being modest
Trapped in your cocoon
But underneath you are a goddess
Baby you're the hottest
I'm just being honest
You should be released
Back into the wild

It's time, time to let the predator out
Cause it's watch your back
You're a killer, a beast, you're an animal
And it's easy to see you're an animal

Tonight, everyone will know what you are
You'll be out of the dark
When you're watching me, you're an animal
And it's easy to see, you're an animal

Moving with your instincts
All your hear is but that heartbeat
Taking your position
To the high press in the story
Feeding off the spirits and the people are arousing
I can feel you pouncing
Damn the room is bouncing

Feed me with the eyes
Ready to play
See me in the eyes
I'll be your prey

No more hesitation
The train has left the station
You should be released
Back into the wild

It's time, time to let the predator out
Cause it's watch your back
You're a killer, a beast, you're an animal
And it's easy to see you're an animal

Tonight, everyone will know what you are
You'll be out of the dark
When you're watching me, you're an animal
And it's easy to see, you're an animal

So turn it up
I bring out the animal in you
You bring out the animal in me
I bring out the animal in you
You bring out the animal in me
I bring out the animal in you
You bring out the animal in me
I bring out the animal in you
You bring out the animal

It's time, time to let the predator out
Cause it's watch your back
You're a killer, a beast, you're an animal
And it's easy to see you're an animal

Tonight, everyone will know what you are
You'll be out of the dark
When you're watching me, you're an animal
And it's easy to see
You'll be out of the dark
When you're watching me, you're an animal
And it's easy to see, you're an animal
