Back before the sea
Before the skies were blue
There was this melody
No one could hear but You

When the noise has finally disappeared
I can hear your anthem loud and clear

Your song goes on forever
I will sing my part, with my whole heart
Your song goes on forever
I will bless your name; I will sing your praise
Forever
Your song goes on forever

In my brokenness
In my victories
Even when I'm lost and scared
It still plays inside of me

When the noise has finally disappeared
I can hear your anthem loud and clear

Your song goes on forever
I will sing my part, with my whole heart
Your song goes on forever
I will bless your name; I will sing your praise
Forever (Forever)
Forever (Forever)
Your song goes on forever

Praise is rising
Eyes are turning
I lift my voice to You

Praise is rising
Eyes are turning
I lift my voice to You

Your song goes on forever
I will sing my part, with my whole heart

Your song goes on forever
I will sing my part, with my whole heart
Your song goes on forever
I will bless your name; I will sing your praise
Forever (Forever)
Forever (Forever)
Your song goes on forever

Forever
