Verse 1:

I told myself that I'll take you for the last time I'll be over you eventually Time after time you seem to push me off and understand what we have become

You wash your neck when you leave, now I know your routine
I was in love with your mystery
Now I just take what I can get from you, I'm not embarrassed to be what you want - need to be.

Chorus:

'Cause I like you,
I got nothing to hide,
I don't pretend to have any shame,
I've got a box you can put all your nights in - until the end of day,
You know that I will be gone away,
The call you make when you're all alone,
And I know that I will always be the one,
Who'll be there when you're all done.

Well here comes the sun,
And you're in my arms.
And I deny it keeps me on the edge from the chance that you'll see through the night.

Verse 2:

You just wanna fill the void now
I can tell that you've been yelling at him all night long
I can hear it in your voice now
He got you smoking back extra deep

Don't you worry 'bout me talking
I know why you've been coming, I'll be quiet this ain't nothing to me
Just wrap your legs around my waist, I won't stop until you ask me,

dont you worry about us messing up my sheets.

Chorus:

'Cause I like you,
I got nothing to hide,
I dont pretend to have any shame,
I've got a box you can put all your nights in - until the
end of day,
You know that I will be gone away,
The call you make when you're all alone,
And I know that I will always be the one,
Who'll be there when you're all done.

Well here comes the sun,
And you're in my arms.
And I deny it keeps me on the edge from the chance
that you'll see through the night.

Bridge:

After I hate you, then you'll want me, then I'll miss you, then you'll hate me
Girl I know you so well, girl I know your routine.
I'm gonna hate you, then you'll want me, then i'll miss you, then you'll hate me
Girl i know you so well, girl I know your routine

Well here comes the sun,
And you're in my arms.
And I deny it keeps me on the edge from the chance
that you'll see through the night.
