We're as far as far can be, lets take off our coats and stay a while with nothing but the fire burning on....

If we could stop ourselves right here, then what would
we do differently
In trying to make you see my point, I'll bury it deep in to your chest

Can we let go of past mistakes, mistakes we've made or are they stronger, stronger then the two of us...

If we could stop ourselves right here, then what would
we do differently
In trying to make you see my point, I'll bury it deep into you!

And at that moment, time stood still, from that point on, there was no turning back At that moment, time stood still, that point on, there was no turning back

There's a shadow on the wall, moving slowly towards the door, now the room is empty and so are our lives....

But in the end they'll never know

That she waited and waited and waited but they never came

They never came.
