New information is welcome everywhere I go
Some set the pre-set I reset to the earth below
I've been involved with a couple humans out of reach

At last, at least I'm amazed, I still have air to breathe (breathe)

I ran a hundred miles to loosen up my throat
I fell in love with a boat and flew back on a ghost
I'm fascinated when something gets the best of me

At last, at least I'm amazed, I still have air to breathe

I've been dreaming my whole life, my dream is to move
ya
No more worries, no more cries, addicted to the future
Any moment we can cry, to love with the lights on
At last, at least I'm amazed, I still have air to breathe

You bet I took a little trip to a gipsy on a beach
She only had a daughter and the sand beneath her feet
I swear she looked me in my eyes, baby
I felt a sudden rush cause life is gettin' shorter daily
There's nothing wrong with you, I still believe in you
I'm getting restless, but I'll wait for you to make a move

New information (ooh, ahh, ooh, ahh), New information (ooh, ahh, ooh, ahh)

EVERYBODY

I've been dreaming my whole life, my dream is to move
ya
No more worries, no more cries, addicted to the future
Any moment we can cry, to love with the lights on
At last, at least I'm amazed, I still have air to breathe

Thanks, God (x5)

I've been dreaming my whole life, my dream is to move
ya

No more worries, no more cries, addicted to the future
Any moment we can cry, to love with the lights on
At last, at least I'm amazed, I still have air to breathe
