This day feels anything but typical
I woke up choking on a miracle
I don't know why, I don't know why, I don't know why
I don't know why, I don't know why, I don't know why

My teacher told me what I'm made for
I beg to differ in the outcome
I don't know why, I don't know why, I don't know why
I don't know why, I don't know why, I don't know why

There's nowhere to run
When you're hiding from the truth
It's some kind of joke
When the tears are bleeding blue
Looking-glass fun
When the pain is caused by you
Some kind of joke
It's some kind of joke

Ooh, yeah, ooh, yeah, alright
I'm almost done with all my secrets
I take my time to fake a deep breath
I don't know why, I don't know why, I don't know why
I don't know why, I don't know why, I don't know why

There's nowhere to run
When you're hiding from the truth
It's some kind of joke
When the tears are bleeding blue
Looking-glass fun
Oh, when the pain is caused by you
Some kind of joke
It's some kind of joke

Oh, wait a minute
And a room full of red pretend to be done
We fall on our face pretend to be done
A room full of red pretend to be done
We fall on our face pretend to be done

Uh! Uh! Uh!

There's nowhere to run!
When you're hiding from the truth
It's some kind of joke!
When the tears are bleeding blue
Oh, looking-glass fun!
Oh, when the pain is caused by you
Some times we joke
And some times we choke

Sing!
Sing!
Alright!
Sing with me!

Some times we joke
It's some kind of joke

Ah!
