She was always far away
Got this dream of hers today
Trying to keep them all in play
I get so closed, I'm breaking down
Summer soaked through this whole town
I waited, won't you come around?
What happened, mama?
What happened, mama, I'm worth the wait
What happened, mama?
What happened, mama, I'm worth the wait
Have you taken a new form?
Are you the brother I don't know?
Deep brown eyes look to the shore
I just feel strong is poor
Does it mix into the truth?
I left not knowing what to do
What happened, mama?
What happened, mama, I'm worth the wait
What happened, mama?
What happened, mama, I'm worth the wait
Got so high
By my eye
I'm not sure
Is it time?
And I get anxious, I go nuts
I need the time when it's too much
Lean in and get a touch
We don't wanna set it straight
No conclusions, it's too late
It's not the same once it's fate
What happened, mama?
What happened, mama, I'm worth the wait
What happened, mama?
What happened, mama, I'm worth the wait
Take my hand
Understand
No more cryin'
It's my man
It's my man
It's my man
