Somebody told me there is a place to go
Where they ain't out to put you down
Everyone's listening to the radio
Where the street belongs to the young
And the night belongs to no one

In Dog Town, In Dog Town

It's all right
They'll be playing all night
It's all right
Gonna hold you tight

How much longer can I wear my worn out shoes?
How much higher till I come down
Take me somewhere I can shake these blues
Where the street belongs to the young
And the night belongs to no one
