

Nightfall "Ardour Was I"

Lured by the beauty of thou chantings
The ones being sang by your delicate slender body
Sanctuary of thou precious faith furious soul hauntings
As the sky cries, mournful odes clamor saddy
Ardour was I
Charmed by the foulmoon's dasty hazy rays
Staring all white to those promising stars
Shall I conquer the keyland's golden lace
I endow my firelike soul with millions of stars Lay with me souless fiancee, let me thread slip into the sea
This liquid horny heaven, your eden's markstone
Oh, how amazing is to feed, my generation's tree
Awake the beast inside, my picture I'll drown...in you
Ardour was I
And Ardour still am I
Mesmerized in ecstasy's path I walk in etherial orbit
Awake by the orgasm of the ogress, thou waves
Of liquid fire streams, flowing from this velvet orchid
Like onshore breeze intoxicates me, my soul's fave.
