[Verse 1: D.C. Pierson]

Y'all know the name

No action, all flame

It's D to the C, no practice, all game

And not the game that your computer came installed with

So ditch the lame Twit you are currently involved with

The Derrick Boys a bunch of crazy brothers like the Baldwins

Echo motherfucker, you are just another dolphin

Hello motherfucker, like I walked in on incest

Do it motherfucker, talking does not impress

Us, man, us

It's all about us

Like them self absorbed teen girls talking on the bus

We trust you to pay when we ask you to pay

Til then, Chili Peppers, we give it away

I don't fuck the fans, I am not the industry

Man, I hate it when the man comes between you and me

I don't masturbate, I give a handjob to a star and

Picture you bumping out this anthem in your car

Still showing up for our dorks, geeks, losers

Rode out from New York on six beach cruisers

And if we could we'd ride with every kid right on the handlebars

We are just some rappers like some fat kid ate the candy bars

[Verse 2: Childish Gambino]

Yes I'm back with a whole new attitude

Flier than a Cardinal, check my fuckin' latitude

Yes I'm so sick man, somebody call the doctor

Girls stay wet like I'm fucking with a lobster

I stopped talking I'm tired of paying em lip service

Switched over from street niggas to hipsters

I am so different, Donald Glover in the bitch

I don't need to use my rapper name, that's just Childish

And they used to call me Oreo, dunk me in that milk

Maybe then I will be white enough to hang out with them kids
They have to call you names when they don't know what you are Now they know just what I are, baby girl I am a star
APC kicks, looking like a British boy
More money means more problems, I have been annoyed
Dude mad bout the girl that I came with
I'm fly, she fly, you are just penguin
I am just a rapper so I don't speak English
I just go hard like the traffic light changes
Sick boy, bitch, we the clique like seat belts
Yes I'm on fire I don't have to ask how heat felt
When I was 14, man nobody else was thinking this
A nigga off the chain, man I Abraham Lincoln'd this

I am just different
Motherfucker, I'm different
Yeah, I am just different
Yeah, I am just different
