I am so different being me is like the lottery

I am so on like the tv when you fall asleep

Niggers making Pottery, But I broke the bowl now my shit has got em dancing like a baby ?oaken pull?

yes I got a lust for life, and I drink my weight in whiskey and these hoes are acting different cause I'm Rich Comma Richie

These friends are iffy, they're alcoholic geniuses I think they hang around until I'm drunk and buy them guinness's

I gotta drink my medicine, to cover what's inside of me I'm still fucked up from the days nobody liked me I'm lying just a little when I say that I don't give a fuck you know I gotta give a fuck

You know I gotta give a fuck

My face is broken out

My shirt is hand me down

This kid named Vincent want to take my shirt and lay me out

I'm trying to fit in like a fat bitch in her shoe size It's funny how I'm flier now that witches on their broom rides

I always thought these new cloths, were the potion cause I never felt that good in my own skin its probably cause I'm the only black kid in my school and when I meet another black kid, they tell me I'm a fool

cause I wear these tight cloths, tight jeans,

tight shirts
Yeah I stay tight, like these girls that make my dick hurt

Yeah I'm self concious, go ahead laugh it up, cause I dig deep and pull something out to back it up they told my ass to blacken up what the fuck are you you don't even say shit quit writing gay shit now when they see me, have to squint like asians cause I'm to bright like an old night light when I do not talk I am being po-lite rap all night

act all day momma so scared Ima waste away

I don't have time to sleep, I don't have time to eat these niggas got time to do everything but be unique I gotta do me like I'm jerking to a mirror

I am just a rapper, can't make it clearer to every kid in a world full of pain please give a listen to this song and my name

Childish Gambino, We are all children

I am just a murderer, Man I just killed this
