Girl you're such a blessing to me
Being in love with you is such a beautiful thing
No I ain't ever felt this way before
And I ain't been the same since you walked out the door

My baby has upped and left me
And I don't know the reason why
I'm so incomplete
Cause without you girl nothing's goin' right

And when the earth starts shaking
And the buildings start breaking
The walls start tumbling down
Said you keep me on solid ground
Said you keep me on solid ground
Solid ground
If you don't start for something
Might as well not stand for nothing
So don't let me down
Just keep me on solid ground
Said you keep me on solid ground
Solid ground

Like the old saying
You've never met a good thing until it's gone
And I've been trying to get myself together
But everything trying no it won't work, no

My baby has upped and left me
And I don't know the reason why
I'm so incomplete
Cause without you girl nothing's goin' right

And when the earth starts shaking
And the buildings start breaking
The walls start tumbling down
Said you keep me on solid ground
Said you keep me on solid ground
Solid ground
If you don't start for something

Might as well not stand for nothing
So don't let me down
Just keep me on solid ground
Said you keep me on solid ground
Solid ground

I try to exist on this earth without you here girl
I really...
My world's been going crazy
Cause I need my baby
I'm only half the man that I used to be
How did I ever let you get away from me
It feels like I'm going crazy
Cause when the earth

When the earth starts shaking
And the buildings start breaking
The walls start tumbling down
Said you keep me on solid ground
Said you keep me on solid ground
Solid ground
If you don't start for something
Might as well not stand for nothing
So don't let me down
Just keep me on solid ground
Said you keep me on solid ground
Solid ground
